Online seminar 'Beyond the tip of the iceberg: Sexual violence in Belgium' on the 17th of June 2021. At this seminar we present the results of the UN-MENAMAIS study, the first gender- and age-sensitive sexual violence prevalence study in Belgium. The results will be made available to you in 5 pre-recorded capsules to be watched online during the week prior to the seminar:

- Capsule 1: Methodology of the UN-MENAMAIS quantitative & qualitative studies
- Capsule 2: Sexual violence in the Belgian population aged 16-69
- Capsule 3: Sexual violence in older adults in Belgium aged 70+
- Capsule 4: Sexual violence in minority groups in Belgium (LGBT+ & AIPs)
- Capsule 5: Forensic responses to victims of sexual violence

On the 17th of June we have our online scientific seminar in English. We start at 9:00 with a welcome, some pre-recorded political opening statements and a general introduction to the UN-MENAMAIS project. We continue with in-depth Q&A sessions of each of the 5 capsules (until 12:00).

In the afternoon we host an interdisciplinary debate (13-15:00) with eminent international speakers on the implications of our results on research, practices and policies. The debate will be moderated by the Belgian TV-news anchor and radio journalist Xavier Taveirne.
